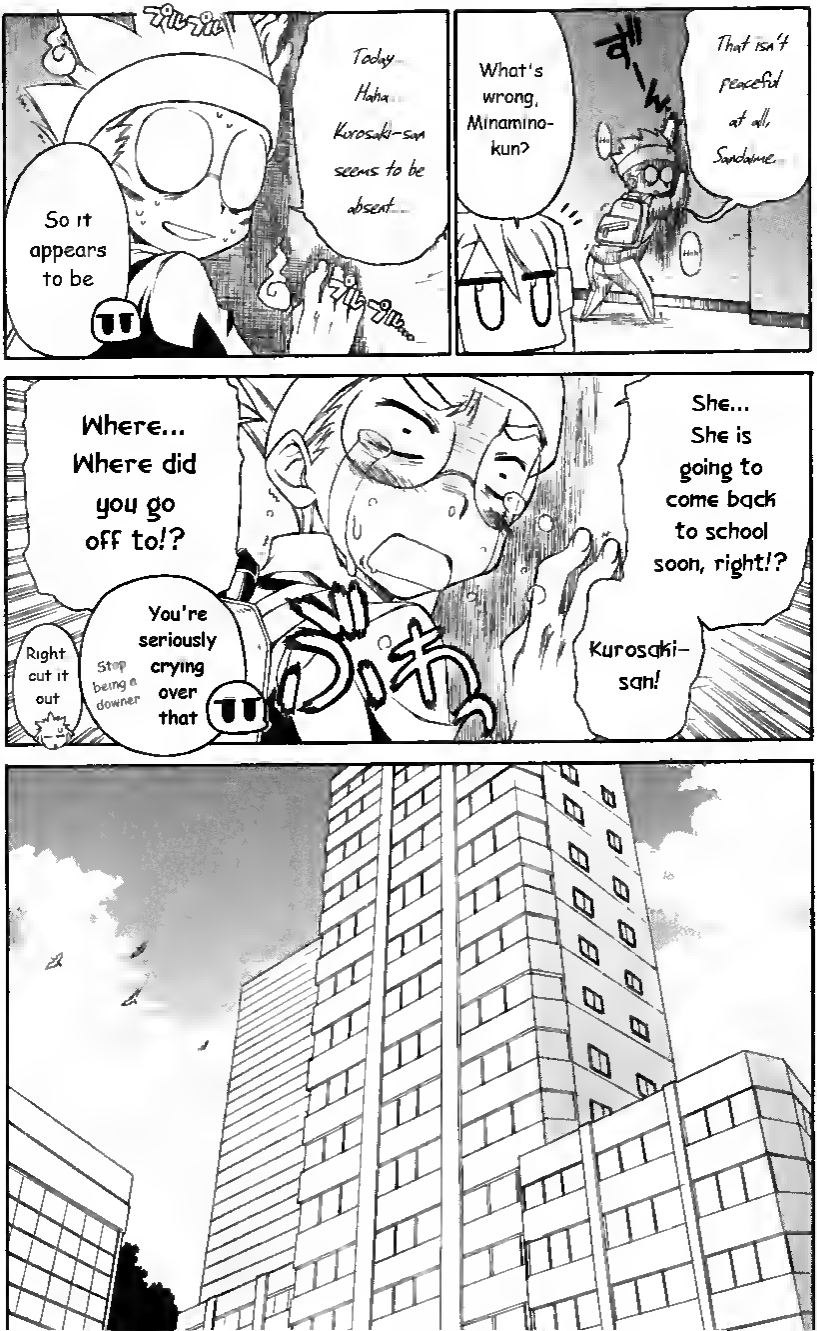
PROJECT.32

WORK OF JUSTICE



So it appears to be
Today... Haha... Kurosaki-san seems to be absent...
What's wrong, Minamino-kun?
That isn't peaceful at all, Sandaime...
Where... Where did you go off to!?
You're seriously crying over that
Stop being a downer
Right cut it out
She... She is going to come back to school soon, right!?
Kurosaki-san!

With this..
The 88th Department of the Unified Public Security Agency
.....
Can begin their special secret mission

This room is so dirty it stinks, do you have any air conditioning?
Hey!
More importantly, why am I the only member here?
Wait, Captain, why are we in my room?
Kamishiro Yukina
Damn!
Hey, put those down!
Captain!!
As usual, you're wearing such lucrative black panties
Oh no they're jumping in the trash!

To think the Prototype survived after all this time
I heard it was supposed to have been disposed of after the completion of the experiment
It was a useless story after all...
That Kamishiro...
If we were to leave her alive
Would it really be okay?
The higher-ups do not think so
Though, the best solution in that matter would be to ask the person in question a proposition
"If you were to use your 'power' anymore"
Then...

However the 88th Department's aim is separate from ours
If the person behind this
Is more powerful...

I'm done telling stories
You'll have to wait for the next issue for more
Ah! I want to hear the next issue now!
Well, let's hurry up...

Kurosaki
And take it all off...
